ALPHA REAL CAPITAL BECOMES MEMBER OF UNITED NATIONS GLOBAL COMPACT

Alpha Real Capital (“Alpha”), the specialist manager of secure income real assets, is pleased to announce their membership of the UN Global Compact.

The UN Global Compact is a programme whereby companies like Alpha can align their operations and strategies with ten universally accepted principles in the area of human rights, labour, environment and anti-corruption, and take action in support of UN goals and issues embodied in the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). Launched in 2000, the UN Global Compact is the largest corporate sustainability initiative in the world, with more than 12,000 companies and 3,500 non-business signatories based in over 160 countries, and 69 Local Networks.

Alpha supports the Ten Principles of the UN Global Compact and is committed to implementing these guiding principles as part of Alpha’s responsible investment strategy and day-to-day operations.

Phillip Rose, CEO at Alpha Real Capital said: “Alpha is committed to corporate sustainability and making the UN Global Compact and its principles part of our strategy, culture and day-to-day operations. Responsible investing is a core component of our investment philosophy as well as our business strategy and is aligned with the long-term nature of the £4.5billion of assets in which our funds invest”

Ed Palmer, Chief Investment Officer and Head of Sustainability at Alpha Real Capital said: “We are delighted to join the UN Global Compact and believe there is strong alignment with Alpha’s focus on responsible investment strategies such as social and renewable infrastructure which represent approaching half of our £4.5billion of Assets Under Management. We already leverage the SDG framework to help assess the contribution our investments make toward the environmental and societal challenges we face and look forward to advancing progress further”
